

APPENDIX

31ST Fleet Division – United States Naval Militia- United States Naval Reserve (1933)

Company “D” United States Marine Corp. Reserve (1933)

Procurement Center V-12 Officers Candidate Program (1946)

Surface Division USNR 3-69 and 3-70 (1946 & 1954)

Surface Battery 3-31 (1954)

Construction Battery 3-11 (1948)

Volunteer Ordnance Co. 3-6 (1950)

Naval Security Group 3-8 (1954)

Second Rifle Co

Volunteer Training Unit 1-27

USCG Organized Reserve Training Unit – Port Security (ORTUPS) 3-408

Volunteer Training Unit 3-5

4th Marine Div/25th Marines/2nd Battalion/ Company “F” (Fox Co 225)

On more than one occasion, over 1000 residents lined the streets as a symbol of support and pride as troops marched to the train station on route to harms way.

The “Good Old” 31st and Fox Company 225 have a history of distinction. The 4th Marine Div. went on to earn:

Presidential Unit Citation Streamer with Bronze Star for Saipan and Tinian (1944), Iwo Gima (1945)

Navy Unit Commendation Streamer Iwo Gima 1945

Asiatic/ Pacific Campaign Streamer with 4 Bronze Stars

WW2 Victory Streamer for its Gallant Service in the Marshall Islands, Saipan, Tinian and Iwo Gima

No less than 6 Congressional Medals of Honor, and no less than 115 Navy Cross, Distinguished Service medals and Legion of Merit Commendations were earned.